Prestonsburg Meeting Opens Perkins' Re-Election Campaign

The United Mine Workers of America, District No. 30, sponsored a meeting at the Prestonsburg Court House, Prestonsburg, Kentucky, Saturday, April 19, 1952, which was attended by all Local Union Officers from Floyd County and a representative group from surrounding counties, for the purpose of opening Representative Carl Perkins' campaign for re-election.

Hindman Celebrates School's Anniversary

A week long celebration marking the fiftieth anniversary of the founding of the Hindman Settlement School will get underway at Hindman Sunday, May 4, and continue through Friday, May 9.

Highlight of the week's activities will be the presentation of a pageant depicting the history of the school from the day "Uncle Solomon Everidge made his 22-mile barefoot trek from Hindman to Hazard to ask the 'quare woman' to come to the valley of the Troublesome and start a school.

Cast of the play will consist of over 200 citizens of Hindman and Knott County. Mrs. Edward Nauss, of Chapel Hill, N. C., will direct the pageant, which will be staged Thursday night at 7:00 o'clock on the school campus.

The play was written by (Continued on Back Page)

Collier & Cook Announce Opening of New Funeral Home

Formal opening of the Collier and Cook Funeral Home, Whitesburg and Letcher County's newest undertaking establishment, has been set for Saturday, May 17. David Cook announced today.

Open house at the new funeral home located on Webb Avenue beside the courthouse in Whitesburg, will be held on that day and the public is cordially invited to visit the new concern.

The Home is owned and operated by T. R. Collier and David Cook. Collier, of this county, recently bought out the interest of Maynard Hopkins in the Hopkins-Cook Funeral Home located at Estill in Floyd County.

Students Excel At Middlesboro

"How did Letcher County students do at the Middlesboro Festival over the week end?" is a question which many Countians have asked and the answers those persons received were all the same and on the positive side.

For Letcher County's students made outstanding showings at the Southeastern Kentucky Music Association at Middlesboro last Thursday, Friday and Saturday and folks in this county have plenty to be proud of.

The annual music festival, which had its third meeting this year, is one of the biggest events of this section. It included two days of performing and judging in churches and schools for individual and group entries and a climax day for all events.

The big day began on Saturday morning at 10:30 o'clock when thirteen marching bands paraded through the streets of Middlesboro. Big event of that day came off at 2:00 p. m. when the All Festival Band and Chorus began at the Lincoln Memorial Gymnasium in Harrogate, Tennessee.

Judges from Kentucky and other states had been on hand during the entire festival to hear the students perform and talk to them personally of their problems and give advice on how to improve technique and ability.

Individual and group entries were given written criticisms from the judges. The entire festival was non-competitive and these criticisms, all constructive, were solely intended for the betterment of the students.

Fifteen hundred students representing thirteen schools from six counties attended and participated in the three-day festival. Three Letcher County schools, Jenkins, Whitesburg and Fleming-Neon were represented.

An outstanding feature which attracted much attention on the Thursday night program was Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Adams' Ballet Class from the Whitesburg School. Capacity audiences were seen at all events.

Jaycees, Council Cooperate To Mark Whitesburg Streets

At a regular weekly meeting Tuesday night, the Whitesburg Jaycees unanimously voted to donate $210.00 toward erecting street signs in thirty locations on Whitesburg streets.

The sum voted toward the project by the Jaycees represents half of the total cost of the street markers.

The Whitesburg City Council will furnish the other half of the cost.

The idea to mark the streets of Whitesburg was hit upon by the Jaycees earlier this year and a committee was appointed to go before the City Council and make the proposition that the club would have the expense of having the markers erected.

Mayor Banks and the Council readily agreed to look into the project and later announced that thirty locations in the city would need markers.

The markers, in black and white, are sturdy and as beautiful as any markers in this section of the country. Each marker costs $14.00, giving a total cost of $420.00 for thirty markers.

The agreement reached between the Jaycees and City Council calls for the City to dig holes for the poles on which the markers will be placed. The Jaycees are to erect the markers.

HOMEMAKER MEET HELD

Special chartered buses from Letcher and four other Eastern Kentucky counties rolled into Whitesburg Tuesday morning as 227 homemakers gathered at the Presbyterian Church for the nineteenth annual district meeting of the Kentucky Federation of Homemakers.

Represented by the group, which began registering at 9:30 a. m. were Letcher, Perry, Pike, Johnson and Knott Counties.

Mrs. Arthur Eversole, of Perry County, who presided as Director, called the meeting to order at 10:00 o'clock and Mrs. J. S. Bell gave the invocation. Guest speaker of the day was Mrs. Anna C. Pettes, of Brush, Colorado, who recently returned from the Polynesian Islands. She spoke on home conditions in those islands.

Others who spoke were Mrs. Myrtle Weldon, State leader of Homemakers, Mrs. Helen M. White and Miss Vandilla Price, Home agent supervisors, and Mrs. Wade Holt.

Elihu Cook Passes At Kona Residence

Elihu Cook, 80, became the second old-time Kona resident to pass within the week as he died of paralysis at his home there Tuesday morning, April 29.

Five days earlier, Charlie Branch, 65, of Kona, had died at the Seco Hospital. Born June 13, 1871, in Letcher County Elihu was the son of Archie Cook and Nancy Adams Cook. He was married to Dora Belle Breeding, 74, who survives him.

Besides his wife, he is survived by six sons, Lindsay, Kona, Curt, Bowling Green; Can, John, and Lester all of Kona; and Pete, of Bowling Green.

Mr. Cook had been a miner, employed by the Elkhorn Coal Company of Kona for many years.

Funeral services were held this morning at the Little Rock Regular Baptist Church, Kona, at 11:00 o'clock (EST), with the Elders Basil Hall, T. R. Collier, Willis Tolliver and Dixie Ison officiating.

Ten Scheduled For Induction

One call for induction and two pre-induction calls have been scheduled for this month, Local Board No. 58 announced today.

Named in the induction call set for May 14th, are ten county youths, three of whom are volunteers.

Volunteers leaving for service on that date are Robert Alton McCullum, Jr., Cromona; James Lee Reach, Seco; and Ralph Brown, Carbon Glow.

Others named in the induction call are Arnold Lawrence Halcomb, Ulvah; William McKinley Ison, Ocalaosa; Jessie Hillard Adams, Dongola; Roland Caudill, Premium Bruno Louis Greco, East Boston, Mass.; Lester Palmer Gilley, Jenkins; and James Paul Collins, Kona.

The two pre-induction calls are set for May 13 and May 26 respectively. Each lists 29 names.

The May 26 call will include youths who have previously failed examinations.

Three young Letcher County men took the sixth Selective Service College Qualification Test at Pikeville Junior College April 24, Dr. A. A. Page, College president, said today.

They were members of a group of 53 drafteable college men from Letcher, Pike, Knott, Floyd, Johnson and Martin counties and West Virginia, who took the examination at the Pikeville testing center. It was given here and at more than 1,000 other centers over the United States, Dr. Page said, in an effort to find the men who could serve their country best by continuing their education.

Letcher Countians in the group were Steve Adams, Jeremiah; Danis Ison, Ison; and Alvin B. Webb, Mayking. Those from Knott County were Franklin Davidson and Ralph B. Stone, both of Hindman, and James Howard Pigman, Dena.

Bus Lines Apply For Rate Raise

The application of seven bus lines, covering the entire county of Kentucky, for a general increase in fares has been set for hearing May 22, Commissioner of Motor Transportation John M. Kinnaird announced.

Concerns seeking an increase in fares are: Hazard-Jenkins Line, Hazard, standard fare increase from two to two and one-fourth cents a mile, and commutation fares from one and one-fourth cents to one and one-half cents a mile.

Sparks Brothers Bus Company, Prestonsburg, general ten percent fare increase with minimum charge of 25 cents a passenger.

Southeastern Greyhound Lines, Division of Greyhound Corporation, Lexington, for approval to increase standard fares ten percent.

Dixie Greyhound Lines Division of Greyhound Corporation, Memphis, Tenn., ten percent increase (W. Ky. counties).

Western Kentucky Stages, Murray, adjustment in standard fares and charges. Short Way Lines, Somerset, increase commutation from one and three-eighths cents a mile to one and one-half cents a mile.

JUDGE CALLS SPECIAL MAY TERM OF CIRCUIT COURT TO CLEAR CIVIL DOCKET

Circuit Judge Courtney C. Wells entered an order this week calling a Special May Term of the Letcher Circuit Court "to try and dispose of the many cases pending on the Common Law Docket of the Court."

Jury Acquits Coal Operator

Gail Ison, 37-year-old coal operator from Ison, was acquitted by the Letcher County jury last Friday of a charge of shooting at with intent to kill.

Ison had been jointly indicted with Bradley Breeding, also of Ison, in the death by heart attack of Constable James Combs, about 55, on Colly last September.

The two men were charged with shooting at Combs at the time of the Constable's death. An indictment charging willful murder was also returned from charges growing out of the death of Combs.

The case against Breeding was dropped by the Commonwealth after Ison's acquittal. The Commonwealth had chosen to try the two separately, taking Ison first because the case against him was thought to be the stronger.

The Letcher County jury decided that Ison had not been responsible for the Constable's death.

Countians Enroll At Pikeville College

Seven young Letcher County women and one man are among the 52 present or prospective school teachers recently enrolled for the nine-week spring term at Pikeville Jr. College, Dr. A. A. Page, college president announced today.

A number of the group will complete the two-year teachers course at Pikeville, and become eligible for the Provisional Elementary Certificate, later this year. They will be graduated either in spring commencement May 29 or at summer commencement August 8.

The Letcher Countians registered for the short term at Pikeville are Dallas June Craft, Mayking; Norma Dotson, Jenkins; Golda Ruth Johnson, Neon; Viola Johnson, Burdine; Mrs. Effie Kincaid, Mayking; Glenna Pace, Mayking; Dancy Sparks, Mayking; and Roxie Sumpter, Gordon.

County Judge Robert Collins, U. S. Representative Carl Perkins, and State Senator Archie Craft journeyed to Frankfort last Thursday in the interest of the Blackey-Roxana road and were assured that the contract for the road would be let in the near future.

Dr. D. H. Ferguson Will Lecture Here On Book of Revelation

Dr. Dwight H. Ferguson, nationally known Evangelist and Bible teacher from Mt. Gilad, Ohio, will be at the Whitesburg Methodist Church to lecture on the Book of Revelation each evening from May 5 through May 10 at 7:30 o'clock.

On successive Sundays, May 4 and May 11, Dr. Ferguson will lecture at the Presbyterian Church in Whitesburg. He will lecture at both morning and evening worship on those days.

The public is cordially invited to hear these lectures by an outstanding evangelist.

Woman Sentenced On Liquor Charge

Mrs. Bob (Laura) Williams, proprietor of the Williams Cafe, Whitesburg, was judged guilty in Letcher Circuit Court Monday morning on a charge of possessing whiskey in local option territory for the purpose of selling and sentenced to serve thirty days in jail and fined $20.00.

Mrs. Williams, whose place of business is also known as The Riverside Cafe, had appealed a thirty-day sentence and hundred dollar fine which she received in Magistrate Elihu B. Addington's court last month.

Tax Commissioners Named

Shafter Davidson, Jenkins, Luther Bates, Whitesburg, and James Whitaker, Skyline, were chosen on the Board of Tax Supervisors for Letcher County Monday by County Judge Robert Collins.

A Great Institution Stands Out On Fiftieth Birthday

A great mountain institution celebrates its fiftieth anniversary this coming week and The Eagle wishes to congratulate that institution, The Hindman Settlement School, for the outstanding educational work it has done in this part of Kentucky.

Since its beginning in 1902, the school has played a vital part in the development of Knott and surrounding counties. It started as, and has always been, a school for mountain children who had no educational facilities close at hand. Those children have profited from the training offered by the school and the school has profited in turn as those children have gone on to make their alma mater a well known institution to all professions.

There are few Knott Countians who can not go back to the beginning of the school and relate the tale of "Uncle" Solomon Everidge, who made a 22-mile barefoot trek from Hindman to Hazard to ask the "quare woman" to come to the valley of the Troublesome to start a school. "Uncle" Solomon had, as many others had also, realized the need of a school in the then wild and turbulent little town known as Hindman. His vision and foresight paid off heavily throughout the years as the settlement grew in stature and helped to elevate Hindman to a prominent position among Eastern Kentucky towns.

Persons outside Knott County sometimes become confused and think of the Hindman school as a settlement where all students board while enrolled. This is a misconception, since the great majority of students come by bus from such places as Mousie and Lackey, near the Floyd County line in one direction, and from communities and farms near the Perry County line in the other.

There are still boarding students in the settlement, however, and such students as these have been a credit to the school as their industry and eagerness to work and learn have always been above the average.

There is much to be said for the Hindman school and all it has accomplished in fifty short years and we wish space would allow us to list a few of the accomplishments. We can't even sing praises in so short a space, however, so we'll just close with a verbal pat on the back for the great institution.

It Pours When It Rains In Kentucky In April

An old adage, "When it rains, it pours," held true over the entire past week end and it was a welcome rain, indeed, although many sportsmen and others would rather the rain had waited until the middle of the week to come down from its heavy clouds.

The first few small showers hit this part of the country on Wednesday afternoon and night and by Thursday morning it seemed that the trees, shrubs, and all of spring's fine greenery had suddenly burst out all over the place. There was a clean feeling in the air and ex farmer boys felt like leaving their office desks as garden sprouts jumped up overnight. Everyone was glad for the rain.

By Sunday, however, most of us were pretty tired of the continuous drizzly downpour. Fishermen were complaining because of high muddy waters or the drenching rain which prevented them from getting a hook in the water while farmers were worrying because the ground might be too wet to work for a few days after the rain did finally stop. When the rain didn't stop by Sunday night, there were words of dissension heard and even the poor old weatherman, who has a job of predicting the unpredictable, came under criticism for his fair and warmer forecast.

The sun finally popped out on Monday and tempers and tension seemed to be eased for the time being as uncle Sol was welcomed on all sides. There was even more pleasantries in the air as the sun came down harder on Tuesday and high waters started to fall and construction workers returned to their jobs as birds sang and children played every where. Spring had really sprung in all its finery.

Now we are wondering just when many will get tired of the sun and complain of the hot weather. . . and will we be among those complaining? Human nature is strange indeed and it always seems to be at its strangeness when the seasons of the year change.

Perhaps that's why we were given the seasons and we Kentuckians are especially blessed with seasons which are hard to contrast. It's good to be a Kentuckian anytime, but we appreciate it more now . . . in the spring.

Safety Conference Held In Louisville

All Kentuckians were asked to interest themselves in highway safety and to familiarize themselves with safety problems in Kentucky by delegates who attended the Third Annual Governor's Highway Safety Conference in Louisville early this month.

The conference requested that public officials, school officials and members of civic clubs, particularly, become familiar with recommendations made at the meeting and help put them across to the general public. Copies of the proposals will soon be printed and made available to the public.

Included in items recommended at the conference were:

Driver education in all high schools for students at legal driving age.

Organization of safety committees in all communities by public officials and fraternal and service organizations.

Better safety measures for school buses.

Broadening of highway shoulders to permit mail vehicles and other vehicles stopping on the roadway to pull off the pavement.

Better safety training for highway engineers.

A comprehensive new program on highway lighting and rural sidewalks where needed.

Better highway signs and better maintenance of signs.

Legislation to require drivers to take tests more often.

Uniform traffic laws in all municipalities.

KY. TOURIST GUIDE GOES ON NEWSTANDS

The Kentucky Tourist Guide—first of its kind ever published for the Bluegrass State—goes on newsstands this week, according to David F. Cocks, Louisville President of the Kentucky Chamber of Commerce. The State Chamber is publisher of the guide.

Appearance of the guide book this week makes Kentucky the fourth state in the nation to have a complete tourist guide; others having similar publications are Florida, New York and Vermont.

Chapters of the guide are headed: Kentucky Lake, Pennyrite, Green River, North Central, Caves, Southeastern, Northern, Northeastern, and Cumberland Regions.

LETTERS

TO THE EDITOR

114 Bassett Court
Lexington, Ky.
April 25, 1952.

Mr. Russell Rice
Sports Editor
Mountain Eagle
Whitesburg, Ky.

Dear Mr. Rice:

I want to make a public apology to the people of Whitesburg and vicinity who were expecting our Markwell All Star team to play there tonight, April 25.

Shortly before time to begin the journey to Whitesburg, we learned that some members of the team could not make the trip in time to reach your city by game time. I tried to get some substitute players, but it was too late; we would have been at least an hour or more late for the game, and we felt that would be as great an imposition on the fans as if the game were canceled, and perhaps scheduled for a later date.

I put in a call for Whitesburg to inform the Junior Chamber of Commerce officials that we could not reach there on time. By the time the call got through it was definitely too late to drive. I then tried to charter a plane to take us, but the planes in Lexington were all grounded because of inclement weather. That left us no choice but to abandon hope of getting to Whitesburg tonight.

Our failure to appear in Whitesburg was particularly disappointing to me, because I feel I have many friends in that part of Kentucky. I certainly do not want to lose one of them because of this misadventure. I really want to play in Whitesburg, and would welcome an opportunity to redeem myself in the estimation of the fans and the friends I have there.

Sincerely yours,
—BILL SPIVEY.

Dear Sir:

I am a subscriber to The Eagle and would be very glad if you would print this letter in your paper. I want to say hello to all my friends in Letcher County, where I was raised. I married Catherine Eoff, of Eubank. We have a nice farm. I have cleared a big new ground this winter and spring. We have several cows and hogs. I have built me a new chicken house and have 500 New Hampshire chicks, besides my laying hens. We sell 36 dozen eggs per week. I have also started me a dog kennel of registered black and tan American coon hounds. I am planning on digging a fish pond this summer.

Thank you,
Mr. Willard Blair.

Dear Sir:

On behalf of the Kentucky Division, American Cancer Society, I wish to thank you for your recent article WHY WON'T LETCHER COUNTIANS GIVE IN THE FIGHT AGAINST CANCER? The information and facts were beautifully presented and we would also like to know the answer to the question WHY?

Our records show that the following number of medically indigent cancer patients were admitted to our clinics for diagnosis and for treatment:

1949—187 patients—Letcher County.

1949—133 patients—Letcher County.

1950—203 patients—Letcher County.

1951—82 patients—Letcher County.

We feel that we have rendered a great service to Letcher County and know that the citizens of your county will support our programs of research, service and education if asked.

Mrs. J. L. Hays is our volunteer chairman for Whitesburg and the northern part of Letcher County. Miss Gertrude Gambill is chairman for Jenkins and the southern part of the county.

We feel, with your support, that these two ladies will see to it that Letcher County raises its 1952 goal of seven hundred and fifty dollars ($750.00). We spend more than this amount each year on medically indigent patients from your county.

Sincerely yours,
Charles E. Tucker,
M. P. H. Executive Director.

Margaret Blair Speaks On Family Genealogy

Perhaps, going on what my Granny Kizzie told me, I can help my cousin Alfred Adams out in regard to names of our older folkfoks.

The way I have it, our grandfather, Moses Adams, with his two brothers Jesse and George and his first wife Mary Garland Adams and ten children, came here from North Carolina in 1802. Here are the names:

Sally who married John Maggard; George married Hennie Ritter Caudill, Steve married Betty Whitaker. Ist. Sally Adams, 2nd. Bill married Franky Adams, Ist. Sally Hall, 2nd. Polly married Sam Cornett, Isaac married Patricia Webb, Ist. Nancy Hays, 2nd. Moses married Rebecca Hall, Jenny married Isaac Brashers, Jess married Polly Mullins, Nancy married Gilbert Adams.

The Hayses were English and Irish. My grandfather Hayes crossed the ocean three times.

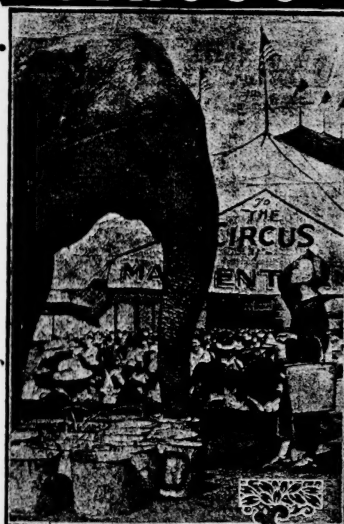

There were six children of his marriage. Rachel married Jake Sturgill. Henry married Mary Webb. Frankie Enoch Webb, Lovina (my mother) married Samuel Blair.

Letcher in Detroit...

by Rev. Byrd Adams

DETROIT—Since my last column appeared in papers some weeks ago a lot of things have happened. There were a series of events and circumstances that led abruptly to the unannounced temporary termination of this column with out the intention of turning the situation into an extended leave of absence.

However, thanks to the change of the said train of circumstances and the health giving properties of the warm spring sunshine, I am back to the inspiring task of walking the streets of Motor City once more.

To get back to the root of the trouble and try to offer an excuse for the unexplained absence—since many of my readers have been demanding that I give account of myself—I'll have to take you back to November when I began winter (unofficially) in the same manner that I begin all winters in Detroit, by catching my first simple—hah! "simple" they say!—head cold.

During the long winter months to follow, was to become the fore-pappy of many another much "simple" disturbance as head cold, chest cold, coughs, red noses, weeping eyes, headaches, infected sinus, flu, weakened constitution and loss of appetite, etc.

Whoever invented that word "simple" surely must not have intended it to be applied to these wintry miseries such as the quack cure-alls, patent medicine exponents and prescription artists so ineptly apply it when speaking of the merits of their "marvelous formula" which is supposed to counteract the inevitable feelings of the simple cold.

I am at presently looking ahead in hopeless anticipation, still dizzy from my last rendezvous with sinus pains, to another short Detroit summer without probably more than two bad summer colds to keep me in prime for the coming next November chill.

Sometimes I think it is the old devil bringing all these colds and their by-products to me just to hinder me in the Lord's work. Well, I must say that the old tormentor certainly succeeds in hindering me a lot. They say the old rascal with forked horns (really, I think he actually appears a demon in angel's clothing) always tempt Whitaker, of the their weakest traits of personality. Well, in that case I know where to expect him.

Yesterday, during a ten to twelve clock sinus pain I said to my wife, "As soon as we can make a move, I'm getting out of here and we're heading for California to get out of this climate."

I wouldn't be surprised to know that old Lucifer, walking up and down before the throne of God, remarked, "See! I told you he couldn't hold out. Already he's fixing to move is search of another cold remedy."

Well after all my trials and tribulations, through sickness and an active one hundred

Chairman of the Board.

DETROIT—Since my last column appeared in papers some weeks ago a lot of things have happened. There were a series of events and circumstances that led abruptly to the unannounced temporary termination of this column with out the intention of turning the situation into an extended leave of absence.

However, thanks to the change of the said train of circumstances and the health giving properties of the warm spring sunshine, I am back to the inspiring task of walking the streets of Motor City once more.

To get back to the root of the trouble and try to offer an excuse for the unexplained absence—since many of my readers have been demanding that I give account of myself—I'll have to take you back to November when I began winter (unofficially) in the same manner that I begin all winters in Detroit, by catching my first simple—hah! "simple" they say!—head cold.

During the long winter months to follow, was to become the fore-pappy of many another much "simple" disturbance as head cold, chest cold, coughs, red noses, weeping eyes, headaches, infected sinus, flu, weakened constitution and loss of appetite, etc.

Whoever invented that word "simple" surely must not have intended it to be applied to these wintry miseries such as the quack cure-alls, patent medicine exponents and prescription artists so ineptly apply it when speaking of the merits of their "marvelous formula" which is supposed to counteract the inevitable feelings of the simple cold.

I am at presently looking ahead in hopeless anticipation, still dizzy from my last rendezvous with sinus pains, to another short Detroit summer without probably more than two bad summer colds to keep me in prime for the coming next November chill.

Sometimes I think it is the old devil bringing all these colds and their by-products to me just to hinder me in the Lord's work. Well, I must say that the old tormentor certainly succeeds in hindering me a lot. They say the old rascal with forked horns (really, I think he actually appears a demon in angel's clothing) always tempt Whitaker, of the their weakest traits of personality. Well, in that case I know where to expect him.

Yesterday, during a ten to twelve clock sinus pain I said to my wife, "As soon as we can make a move, I'm getting out of here and we're heading for California to get out of this climate."

I wouldn't be surprised to know that old Lucifer, walking up and down before the throne of God, remarked, "See! I told you he couldn't hold out. Already he's fixing to move is search of another cold remedy."

Well after all my trials and tribulations, through sickness and an active one hundred and above work schedule, I finally began to break down in the wake of this city's mushy winter climate and started neglecting my column by deciding to take a partial vacation to recuperate.

But, since my doctor bills for penicillin, capsules, pills and more pills, nose drops, cough remedies, vitamin pills, etc., plus loss of work ran a high expense bill I decided I'd better come out of the dilemma fighting. My first step toward making a comeback is to reappear with this column to bore my readers some more.

Well, with all the news a'poppin' and the, officially anyway, touch of spring in the air, as the hound dog's instinct drives him out on the jack rabbit trail, so does the writer crave to smell the ink, fresh from his modern quill, fall a little more on the page endeavoring to express deep or troubled thoughts to others without ever quiet succeeding—fortunately.

More news has accumulated lately than Walter Winchell could make room for. However, Adams will use it and cry for more. Mail in your names and addresses and information, call me up with derails, tell all to Adams. You don't think it newsy enough? Well don't worry about that. It may be more newsy than you think.

Next week I'll let you in on another excuse for the absence of my column during the past several weeks of hectic days.

HAYMOND NEWS
Mr. and Mrs. Carl Hunt and family and Mr. and Mrs. Russell Ratliff and son, all of South Shore, Ky., were visiting Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Bentley and family from Friday through Monday.

The United States Civil Service Commission today announced that applications for the positions of Substitute

Clerk and Substitute Carrier in the local post office will be accepted until further notice.

Under recent Acts of Congress, the pay for Substitute Clerk-Carriers has been increased to 1.61 1-2 an hour and for Special Delivery Messenger to 1.58 1-2 an hour.

In addition to increasing the salary for these positions, Congress has also authorized liberal leave benefits for post office employees effective as of January 6, 1952.

During the first three years of service, post office employees will receive 13 days a year annual leave which may be used for vacation and other purposes.

No specific experience is required but all applicants must pass a written test. Application blanks may be obtained at the local post office. The completed application should be forwarded to the Regional Director, Sixth U. S. Civil Service Region, U. S. Post Office and Courthouse Building, Cincinnati 2, Ohio.

Safety On Our Highways

—by Windus L. Williams The majority—if not all—of today's traffic accidents can be traced back to bad habits on someone's part!

Doing the right thing when a traffic crisis confronts you and having an automobile mechanically capable of responding the way it should are two factors determining whether the accident takes place or not.

Today's traffic demands that both driver and car be at peak performance at all times. A deficiency in either can completely cancel out all assets—mechanical or human—or both.

"Make safe driving a habit—check your car—check your accidents."

KIWANIS SPIRIT

THIS WEEK:

Due to the absence of J. M. Stauffer, J. K. Berry will have charge of the program.

He will have as his guest speaker G. K. Cantrell, Town Clerk of Jenkins. Mr. Cantrell will speak on the subject "Economy and Government." This should prove to be a very interesting discussion.

Attendance-Membership:

Poor old Dave forgets his button. Therefore no tie. Roy Mullins being the lucky one.

Dennis Combs will bring the tie this week. Dennis that means you.

LAST WEEK:

After Igleheart's jokes, he outlined to us a very extensive program for the boys and girls for the coming summer. As he stated, "What the boys and girls get depends to a great extent on the adult leadership." It is true.

It is up to us to see that this leadership is furnished.

GUESTS:

H. H. Hendry, guest of Jack Chevington, gave us a short talk on how the American Legion Post here in Jenkins would try to help raise funds to apply on the building of the gymnasium.

NEXT WEEK:

Dave Zegear will have something a little different for us next week. If his plans work out we will probably meet at the Country Club for a dinner on the ground. This will be father and son night.

NEON LOCALS

Mr. and Mrs. Columbus Craft and son were visiting in Neon Friday.

Gen. Auton Receives Degree From Georgetown Before Death

Being awarded an honorary doctor-of-science degree by Georgetown College last June was called the top achievement by Brig. Gen. Jesse D. Auton, who was killed recently in the crash of a B-25 in Omaha, Nebraska.

"I have received the Legion of Merit and other awards from the Army, but receiving this honorary degree from Georgetown College makes me happier than any other award."

While at Georgetown, Gen. Auton was president of the Georgetown College Baptist Student Union his senior year and a member of the track team his freshman year.

He served in England during World War II, participating in the Berlin airlift. He was director of operations for fighters at Strategic Service Command when he was killed.

He is survived by five brothers, one of whom is Charles Auton of Whitesburg. His sister and step mother also survive him.

Rural Health Council Holds Annual Meet

Another phase of the background leading up to the formation of the Rural Health Council and the pending Statewide Conference on Rural Health was the play acted by the Kentucky State Medical Association.

The Council, or policy-making body of the Medical Association, approved the idea at its December 27, 1951 meeting and also approved the appointment of a representative from each of the council districts to the K. S. M. A. rural health committee. It further agreed to lend financial support to the Statewide group.

Physicians appointed to the K. S. M. A. Rural Health Committee were: D. Y. Keith, Paducah; Thomas H. Milton, Owensboro; Donald W. Anderson, Madisonville; Ruel T. Routt, Sonora, Hardin County; J. Auldin Bishop, Jefferson; D. G. Miller, Jr., Morgantown; Harry K. Dillard, Warsaw; George H. Riley, Erlanger.

Other physicians on the committee are: John W. Somerville, Maysville; Ben F. Roach, Midway; Donald L. Graves, Frenchburg; Garnett J. Sweeney, Liberty, Casey County; Grady Stewart; Olive Hill; Carl Pigman, Whitesburg; and Geo. M. Asher, Pineville.

HEALTH CONFERENCE AT LOUISVILLE, KY.

Six nationally known authorities on rural health problems, along with agricultural, medical, health and home demonstration leaders, will be featured on the First Kentucky Rural Health Conference to be held May 7 and 8 at the Brown Hotel in Louisville.

"We have waited long enough" is the theme of the Conference that is sponsored by the Kentucky Rural Health Council, which is composed of 13 statewide organizations interested in promoting better health in rural communities.

According to Walter L. O'Neil, M. D. Henderson, Chairman of the Council, who made the announcement.

The Conference will get underway at 2:00 p. m. Central Daylight Saving Time, on the 7th when Clark Bailey, M. D., Harlan, President of the Kentucky State Medical Association, will welcome the Conference. Other speakers will be Mr. James Armstrong, formerly of the Committee for Kentucky; Miss Myrtle Weldon, Extension Department of the University of Kentucky, and Mrs. Tom Dulin, Chairman of the Health Committee of the Kentucky Farm Bureau Federation.

Elephants To Be Big Feature In Circus

Miss Bradley travels on a trunk—an elephant's trunk, that is, when Wallace & Clark Circus is in town.

Big "Babe" is the largest circus elephant in the world and she is as talented as she is gentle, for "Babe" doubles in brass-and-overalls, which is how circus people say that an elephant works in harness as well as in spangles.

"Babe's" tall mount helps put the circus together and she helps take it apart. She knows how to roll and fold canvas, a feat that the circus manager, Norman Anderson delights in pointing out to people who wonder if elephants are smart.

Elephants, camels, zebra, tigers, lions, apes, baboons, monkeys and many other zoological rarities abound in the huge circus wild animal menagerie, which is included in a ticket of admission to the main show.

The Circus, under new management, brings its show for afternoon and evening performance on May 5 at Whitesburg.

All the cages of animals, including the big Hippopotamus, are thrown open "free" to the public at 10 a. m. on circus day, where may be seen the feeding and watering of the wild animals.

UK MUSIC FESTIVAL ATTENDED BY 3,000

About 3,000 Kentucky high school musicians attended the vocal and piano section of the 28th annual Kentucky High School Music Festival last week at the University of Kentucky.

The event, sponsored by the University Department of Extension and Department of Music, drew approximately 350 individual and group entries with about 100 glee clubs and choirs competing for ratings. The festival closed last Saturday afternoon with a special concert by outstanding choruses and choirs. The instrumental section of the festival will be held at U. K. May 9 and 10.

There is enough recoverable coal in Pennsylvania to last for 250 years.

Chrysler V-8 Saratoga Sedan, gasoline economy winner in Class "F". Entered and driven in the 1952 Mobilgas Economy Run by Chrysler Dealer Mel Alsbury, Hollywood, It was one of three Chrysler FirePower V-8's to win in their respective classes.

180 HP CHRYSLER V-8 FIRST
IN 3 CLASSES IN ECONOMY RUN!

Here is truly dramatic proof that Chrysler's great new FirePower 180 HP V-8 engine design sets an entirely new standard of efficiency among American passenger car engines!

In this annual economy test, rigidly supervised, and limited strictly to stock car entrants, cars competing are divided, by price and size, into 11 standard classes. The route, from Los Angeles to San Valley, covered 1,415 miles of every possible kind of driving. Average speed for all cars was just under 41 miles per hour.

And in 3 of the 11 classes, the Chrysler V-8 engine was best for gasoline mileage.

In Class "F", this magnificent new engine won first place for a Saratoga 6-passenger sedan (155½-inch wheelbase, 4010 pounds).

In Class "H", it won first honors for a Saratoga model 8-passenger sedan (139½-inch wheelbase, 4510 pounds). And in the top price and size, Class "T", it was again first, in a Chrysler Crown Imperial Sedan (145½-inch wheelbase, 5360 pounds).

To travel these substantial cars at this speed under these conditions gives additional proof, we believe, that here in the FirePower V-8 engine is the finest and most efficient engine ever put into an American passenger car!

WE INVITE YOU TO DRIVE THIS ENGINE, YOURSELF...

The same engine which has just scored these remarkable accomplishments is no farther from you than your own Chrysler Dealer. He will welcome the chance to let you take the wheel and feel for yourself what Chrysler has done... not only in engine performance, but in power steering, power brakes, new shock absorbers, passenger comfort... to deserve the title: "Finest Car America Has Yet Produced!"

Club News

LITTLE COWAN 4-H CLUB

April 24, the president, Elmer Banks, of the Little Cowan 4-H Club called the meeting to order at the school for the regular monthly meeting.

Caudill and Lila Fields led the group in repeating of the flag pledges and following the song leaders, Christine Banks and Ina Partridge, led the group in the singing of several songs.

The Secretary, Thelma Caudill called the roll and the members responded by giving up-to-date reports on their projects. The Club was very pleased at the work of the members on their projects and feel that they in working, playing and co-operating with each other are becoming some of tomorrow's finest citizens.

The minutes were read by the Secretary and upon motion duly made by Myrel Brown, seconded by Eugene Mullins, they were adopted as read.

There being no old business to be finished, we had a round-table discussion led by our leader, Myrel Brown, in regards to our projects. Since the Club seemed to be doing so well, we decided to have a little fun along with our work. We decided that we would have a Weiner roast at our next meeting time. Also, each member is to bring his or her record and project books and before beginning with our games each project captain and their respective group will have a discussion of what they have accomplished toward the completion of their projects.

A social hour was enjoyed during which refreshments were served by the hostesses.

Among those who attended the Southeastern Music Festival at Middlesboro last week were: Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Adams, Millard Tolliver, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Clay, Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Price, Mr. and Mrs. William Floyd Mercer, Mr. and Mrs. Ballard Clay, Mrs. Stephen Combs, Jr., Mrs. Albert Jones, Mrs. John Brown, Mrs. Arthur Banks, Mrs. Oscar Lewis, Mrs. Ruth Rice, Mrs. Maurice Lewis, Mrs. Belle Hays, Mrs. Floyd Mercer, and Mrs. Guy Jackson, Mrs. Ernest Burklow, Mrs. Logan Music of Neen.

On Wednesday evening April 23 following the Prayer Service at the Presbyterian Church members of the Church met in the assembly room of the church for a reception honoring the new members who recently joined the church. At this time the Rev. and Mrs. Ernest Wilson were presented a gift of four place settings in sterling silver as a token of love and appreciation from the congregation of the church. Rev. and Mrs. Wilson and family are leaving soon to make their home at Wyndale, Va., where Rev. Wilson has accepted the pastorate of a church. Delicious refreshments were served to approximately 40 members and friends of the church.

Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Holbrook spent Sunday visiting Mr. Holbrook's mother, Mrs. Enoch R. Holbrook who is a patient at the Norton General Hospital, Norton, Va.

Last Thursday evening the Belle Bennett Circle of the Methodist Church sponsored an auction sale at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Blair. Cossie Quillen proved herself an excellent auctioneer when she auctioned the gifts which had been sent by members of the church to be sold, and a good sum was realized from the sale. Refreshments consisting of home made cake, tea and coffee was served by the committee, Mrs. Forest Brown, Mrs. Roy McClure, Mrs. Billy Paul Collins, and Mrs. Cecil Webb.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Thomas and Judith Clay spent last week end visiting friends at Bowling Green, returning home on Sunday. They were accompanied by Bowling Green by Mrs. Ray Cornett and son, Michael Lance who had been visiting here.

Mrs. Don Brown returned home on Saturday after spending two weeks with Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Kelsey and family at St. Petersburg, Fla. She was accompanied home by her mother, Mrs. Wilson Fields who spent the winter in Florida.

S. W. Cox is able to be out again after being a patient in the Fleming Hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Smith and son, Danny Ray, of Strawberry Plains, formerly of Whitesburg are visiting relatives and friends here this week.

On Monday morning at 4:30 a. m. approximately 107 seniors left by bus for Washington, D. C. While in Washington the seniors will spend the time sight seeing and visiting points of interest and will be guests at the Roosevelt Hotel. Teachers who accompanied the group are principal Millard Tolliver, Miss Vera Raleigh and Mr. and Mrs. Carlos Breeding.

The group will leave Washington this morning for the return trip home.

Mrs. Mack Comer of Vico attended the Homemakers meeting at the Presbyterian Church on Tuesday and also called at The Mountain Eagle Office.

Miss Sophia Holliday, Area Director of Save the Children Federation called on Mrs. Virgil Blair, manager of the local store on Tuesday. Plans were discussed for moving the store to the basement of the Daniel Boone Hotel.

THANK YOU

We wish to thank each and everyone who showed their kindness and lent a helping hand in the sickness and death of our mother Mrs. Clark S. Day.

We want to thank the preachers for their kind words and also everyone who sent the beautiful flowers and wonderful food. Family of

MRS. CLARK DAY.

NEW '52 HENRY J NOW $1349

Hundreds of dollars lower than any other full size car and it's engineered to save you many hundreds of dollars more!

you save up to $81 on gas!

With its amazing economy of up to 30 miles on a gallon—your Henry J can save you more than 300 gallons of gas over the average car—every year. That's real penny-a-mile economy—and the sparkling Supreme performance you enjoy is just as outstanding, too!

you save up to $20 on tires!

Tires can cost you plenty—but not with the new Henry J! You save $8 on the price of your Henry J tires—a $5.00 a set. And because your Henry J is weight-engineered to give you up to 20% more tire mileage you save another $12 yearly!

you save up to $50 on service!

Your Henry J is designed with fewer, less expensive parts—for quick and low-cost service! Up to $50 less per year! No wonder it has scores of thousands of satisfied owners! P.S. No need to buy sea covers—Henry J's interior is washable vinyl!

you save up to $60 on fees!

Federal, state and local taxes, plus interest charges and insurance costs, play a big part in the price of every new car the first year—but you'll find there's far less to pay the Henry J way! Another good reason why 80,000 new Henry J owners are mighty satisfied!

low as $949 a week!

Little more than $1 a day—low as $9.49 a week—if your trade-in car is an average postwar model in good condition! Your Kaiser-Frazer dealer is ready to offer you an "extra-special" generous trade-in, too! So see your Kaiser-Frazer dealer about your new Henry J now!

Henry J Four-door, chrome interior, $1349, delivered at Willow Run, with Federal Tax paid. White diamond tires, load less (if any) additional.
Other new '52 Henry J models:
The Henry J Coupe $1449
The Henry J Four-door Deluxe $1494
The Henry J Convertible $1594

Flash! Henry J wins in actual mileage in 1952 Mobilgas Economy Run with 30.85 miles-per-gallon!

See your Kaiser-Frazer dealer for equally generous trade-in savings, too.

FARM NOTES

Again the question arises—will sulphur help stop tomato blight if put in the tomato hills. Answer: This is of no value whatsoever in the control of tomato blight. Again, I will try to explain the control for tomato blight. The spray schedule should be started by at least by the time the tomatoes start blooming and should be continued each week until you have had all the tomatoes you want. Use a copper wet-spray or if you have plenty of money, revert to copper dust. Copper dust is about 15 times as expensive to use. If you spray with a wet spray use a pressure spray with copper. Do this every week and completely coat the plant week, and if the rain washes

JAYCEE NOTES

The Whitesburg Jaycees wish to publicly apologize to the many persons who turned out at the Whitesburg gym Friday night to see Bill Spivey and his Markwell All-Star team which was supposed to appear there for a game with the East Kentucky All Stars.

On the editorial page of this issue of The Eagle is a letter from Spivey explaining why he couldn't be here. We won't add to or take from the letter... just let it stand as it is. In as far as the Jaycees are concerned the incident is closed and we are resolving to work harder to make up for any disappointment or inconvenience we may have caused the persons who turned out for the game.

We won't delve into the past any further, although pleasant memories are associated with the Come to Church Night project which we considered a success. Our concern is the future and on that right now is the marking of Whitesburg's streets with as fine a group of markers as you'll find anywhere. The Jaycees have agreed to put up their share, $210.00, and the City Council will vote on equal share at its next meeting. We congratulate Mayor Banks and the City Council members on their willingness to help beautify the city.

The dog inoculating project Saturday afternoon was a minor success, considering the inclement weather. Thirty-two dogs were inoculated by Dr. Robert D. Collins, who has so generously donated his time for the safety of citizens of the county. Since many dogs who would have otherwise been inoculated in pretty weather were not able to be at the Whitesburg school ground Saturday, the Jaycees have planned to have another mass inoculation on Saturday, May 10, from 1:00 o'clock to 3:00 o'clock in the afternoon. The same price $1.50, will be charged.

Homemakers . . .

Bus Rates . . .

The general public may present protests at the time of the hearing, Kinnaid explained.

Campaign Opens . . .

Seco, Ky.

Representing Pike County—Dr. Roy Sanders, Dorton; former Judge Ed Stephenson, Pikeville; Claude Reed, Circuit Court Clerk, Pikeville; Mrs. Roy Donway, Former Sheriff of Pike County; Mr. J. A. Runyon, Commonwealth Attorney, Pikeville; who assured the convention that Mrs. Bessie R. Arnold, County Court Clerk, Pikeville, and L. D. Day, County Attorney, Pikeville, were wholeheartedly for Congressman Perkins.

From Knott County—John C. Cornett, Circuit Judge of Knott and Magoffin Counties, Ruby Watts, Sheriff, Merd Stone, County Judge, Ben Adams, businessman.

From Martin County—C. C. Callahan and Frank Crum, businessmen, accompanied by Charlie Kiser, Representative, UMWA, District No. 17.

Representing Perry County—S. H. Linden, Democratic Chairman of Perry County, Tolbert Combs, County Attorney, Taylor Porter, County Jailor.

From Floyd County—Representatives from all Local Unions, representing 3,000 miners; Bert Combs, Judge of the Court of Appeals, A. B. Meade, Sheriff, Duran Moore, County Court Clerk, Henry Stumbo, Judge, Woodrow Burchett, County Attorney, Henry Hale, State Representative, Doug Hays, State Senator, W. Cooley, Circuit Court Clerk, Bill Biggers, former State Representative, Fred Dickenson, President of Sparks Brothers Bus Company.

From Magoffin County—Cash Holbrook, Businessman, Beulah E. Arnette, Teacher, and several other prominent citizens.

The convention had correspondence from Senator J. E. Johnson, State, Ky.; J. E. Sanders, Attorney, Pikeville and Amos Runyon, State Representative, Belfry, Ky.; and Turner of Breathitt County word from Judge Ervin that they were all for Carl Perkins.

This is the first of a series of meetings to be held at various times preceding the date of the primary election, which will culminate in a mass meeting of all the Counties in the Seventh Congressional District at Pikeville, Ky.

STATEMENT BY PERKINS' FRIENDS

Carl Perkins has proven himself a tried and true friend of the coal miners in his District. He has spared no effort to serve his entire constituency in the Seventh Congressional District, and has proven a valuable public representative in the Congress of the United States for all the people. He has not spared himself in his efforts to serve the people in his Congressional District and they, along with the staunch support of the Union coal miners and other Union men and their friends, will put forth every effort possible to re-elect him to the Congress of the United States and return him to Washington on January 1, 1953.

His work in the Congress of the United States has been outstanding and over-reaches the boundaries of his Congressional District. He is deserving of reelection and has the complete confidence of the Union men and their friends throughout the Seventh District.

In closing, we ask every Union man, woman, and their friends in the Seventh District to start now and make an earnest effort to contact everyone they know, members of all Local Unions, relatives and friends, to register and vote for Carl Perkins in the August primaries, all those who are registered on the Democratic ticket.

This campaign is now launched. We must show that we value honest, sincere service on behalf of the people in the Congress of the United States by not only re-electing Congressman Carl Perkins, but by giving him the biggest majority that a Congressman ever got from this District, to show him the people appreciate his honest efforts and intelligent representation in the Congress of the United States.
